

Table of Contents

Introduction » 7

I Imperial Victims and Servants

Imperial Victims — Empire as Victim: An Interpretation » 15

Training Fields and Servants of Imperial Politics: From the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth to the Kazakh Steppe » 37

II Revolutions and Intellectuals

Intelligentsias in the Structure of the Empire
(The Assimilative Function of the Central Counter-Elite) » 65

Unde Malum? Edward Hallet Carr's and Richard Pipes'
Visions of the Russian Revolution » 85

Save Russia, Redeem the World (The Messianism of the Post-Soviet Intelligentsia and Its Historical Narration) » 107

III A Polish Perspective

Poland: Between Imperial Temptation and Anti-imperial Function in Eastern European Politics » 135

A Europe of Nations — Prince Adam Jerzy Czartoryski's Vision » 167

Between Victimhood and Amnesia: Polish Memories of Eastern European Empires » 193

Eastern Europe under Western Ice, or: Waiting for a Thaw in “Western” Historiography » 209

Bibliography of the most important publications used » 219