

The exhibition catalogue is a richly illustrated selection of the exhibits from the collection of the Czartoryski family, which can be seen in The Princes Czartoryski Museum since 19th December 2019.

The catalogue depicts the history of this valuable collection. The publication of the catalogue was implemented as part of the project “Past Future. Renovation and furnishings of the Princes Czartoryski Museum – National Museum in Krakow in order to provide a unique collection”.