

Contents

Introduction 9

Part 1

Chapter 1. Origins of Management Sciences 21

- 1.1 Management from a historical perspective 21
- 1.2 Management as a scientific discipline 26
- 1.3 Management as a humanistic approach 30

Chapter 2. Media Systems 37

- 2.1. Systemic Conceptions 37
- 2.2. Media Systems 39
 - 2.2.1. Selected media systems 43
 - 2.2.2. Selected models of media systems 50

Chapter 3. The Essence of Media Management – Dual Nature of the Media 57

- 3.1. Media management in historical and methodological contexts 57
- 3.2. Theoretical concepts of media management 60
- 3.3. Media management in systemic approach 63
- 3.4. Range and subject of media management 66
 - 3.4.1. The media good as a subject of management 67

Part 2

Chapter 4. Systems and Information Markets 75

- 4.1. Systemic and economic aspects of information 75
- 4.2. Information as stock 78
 - 4.2.1. Informational system 80
 - 4.2.2. Information management 81
 - 4.2.3. New technologies in information society 83
- 4.3. Informational exclusion – a postulate about continuous education 84

Chapter 5. Economic Aspects of Media Management 89

- 5.1. Media economics as an area of research 89
- 5.2. Media Markets 94
- 5.3. Management of finances in media organizations 100

Chapter 6. Management of Advertising 105

- 6.1. Origins of advertising 106
- 6.2. Advertising agencies and their duties 108
- 6.3. Advertising campaigns 112
- 6.4. Selected methods of researching advertisement 114

Part 3

Chapter 7. Managers and Journalists 125

- 7.1. Human resources in media 125
- 7.2. Managers (Media Steersmen) 132
- 7.3. Journalists 139

Chapter 8. Strategies of Media Organizations. Value for Consumers 147

- 8.1. Strategy vs. Marketing Communication 147
- 8.2. Media Value Chain 151
- 8.3. Value creation in media organizations 157

Chapter 9. Legal and Ethical Aspects of Media Management 167

- 9.1. Boundaries of media freedom 167
- 9.2. Journalistic deontological codes 173
- 9.3. Media manipulations 175

Chapter 10. Developmental Trends of Media Organizations. Indicators of the Future of the Media 181

- 10.1. Language of the new media 183
- 10.2. Challenges for managers 185
- 10.3. Public media 189

Summary 193

Bibliography 199

Lists of Tables, Figures and Charts 213